

BORING FAMILY

REFERENCE
DO NOT CIRCULATE

Benjamin Franklin Boring born March 16th A.D. 1840
Sarah Elizabeth (Meredith) Boring, born Wed. April 28th 1841

Gertrude Meredith Boring, daughter of Benjamin & Sarah E. Boring was born on Friday Evening, Jan. 22d, 1869

Hortense Bonaparte Boring, daughter of Benjamin F. & Sarah E. Boring, was born Sunday A. M. July 12, 1874

Margaret Boring Ehrmann daughter of Gertrude M. & Charles Ehrmann was born at Terre Haute, Ind. Mond. P.M., Aug. 5th, 1895

Howard Meredith Ehrmann son of Charles & Gertrude Ehrmann was born at Terre Haute, Ind. Wednesday A.M. Feb. 16th 1898

2nd Page

Benjamin F. Boring & Sarah E. Meredith were married Thursday eve. Nov. 21, 1867

Charles H. Ehrmann & Gertrude M. Boring were married at Terre Haute, Ind. by Rev. Isaac Dale

Benjamin F. Boring and Christina Elisabeth Noble were married Oct. 23rd, 1910 by Rev. William Loyd Christ, Plymouth Congregational Church

3rd Page

Sarah E. Boring, wife of Benj. F. Boring died at Terre Haute, Ind. Sat. June 28, 1902

4th Page

B.F. Boring with his wife, Sarah E. Boring, their little daughter, Gertrude M. Boring, one year and four months old, and Susan Jane Meredith Mrs. Boring's sister, moved into their new home on what afterwards became Vorhees Ave. and began living there Saturday, May 19th 1870. Broke up housekeeping & moved away from there. B. F. Boring, Jane Meredith and Hortense, April 1, 1905.

B.F. Boring, his daughter, Gertrude M. Ehrmann and her husband, Charles H. Ehrmann, their daughter, Margaret and Son Howard, Hortense Boring and Jane Meredith left Terre Haute June 27, 1905 for Southern California. Spent most of the summer and autumn at the beach - along the Pacific Coast between Los Angeles and Mexico, including Long Beach, Huntington Beach, Newport, Arch Beach and Coronado. Spent the winter keeping house in the town of Orange Calif. Arrived back home at Terre Haute, April 11, 1906.